

BRIGITTE JAQUILLARD

BIO

For more than 20 years Brigitte Jaquillard has specialised in increasing performance of individuals and teams through heightened interpersonal and linguistic skills.

Brigitte's experience has covered many business sectors including Financial, Technology, Telecoms, Travel, Professional Firms, Management Consulting and Pharmaceutical. Business development, presentations and performance management are her specialist areas. She has played the role of "Troubleshooter" to ramp up sales and foster confidence and productivity in businesses who seek to boost performance levels.

As a communication specialist Brigitte is often used to develop the content and delivery of highly sensitive and significant presentations. She has coached the management team of Jimmy Choo, HPI and The Racing Post in the presentation and subsequent sale of their businesses.

Her style is practical, engaging and enlightening, finding and bringing out the best of you and your business, to help you towards your goals.

Since 2009 she has blended her expertise with the very latest technology to deliver exceptional training reinforcement campaigns. These campaigns use a variety of media (video, SMS, accessories and memory cards) all designed to trigger the mind into remembering key learning points and successfully applying them. This solution is offered by ROLIn Ltd (Return On Learning Investment) of which she is founder & Managing Director
