

DEBORA WESTON BIO

Debora Weston has been a performance coach and professional actress for over 15 years. She has worked with bankers, politicians, advertising executives, doctors, lawyers and professionals in all areas of the I.T. sector. She has a B.A. in psychology and theatre from Yale University in America and an advanced degree from Central School of Speech and Drama in England.

On the stage, Debora's most recent West End appearances include: UP FOR GRABS (with Madonna), THE VAGINIA MONOLOGUES, THE 7 YEAR ITCH (with Darrell Hannah) and Ben Elton's POPCORN. Off West End, Debora has performed at the Almeida Theatre, the Royal Court Theatre, the Tricycle Theatre, The Bush Theatre, Soho Theatre and Hampstead Theatre; she has been seen in many television programs and films, most recently DALZELL AND PASCOE, THE MAKING OF THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE and WALLIS AND EDWARD. Films include POSSESSION, PATRIOT GAMES, NIGHTBREED, THUNDERBIRDS, BLESSED and CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY.

Debora has also founded her own company, Professionally Speaking, to help executives become better presenters. Her clients include Toyota, Immersat Ltd. Maritime, Russell Jones and Walker Solicitors, New York University, Reservoir Technology, Brand Driver Consultants, Fraser Research and Strategy and leading international banks (Bank policy does not allow for endorsement but references are available on request)