

Diane Seymour

A founding member of The TAI Group, Diane has been helping clients, from the “high-potential” to CEO level, to develop their leadership skills and to express their unique vision and personality in speeches, conferences, congressional testimony and other major forums for more than twenty years. Her client and assignments include:

- Financial services Senior Executives from Citadel, Magnetar Capital, Pine River Capital Management, BlackRock, TIAA-CREF, UBS Wealth Management, Merrill Lynch, Citi Private Bank, Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank and Allianz Global Investors: leadership development and speaker individualized programs and group workshops.
- Vice Chairman of the Board of US not-for-profit Food Allergy Initiative; mentor, personal coach and speech coach for major national and governmental appearances.
- CEO of a major scientific publishing company; messaging and preparation for Town Hall broadcasts, speeches, and written communications.
- Fortune 500 Technology Firm; development and delivery of leadership programs for high-potential leaders.
- Vice Presidents, Heads of Sales, Head of Marketing, Head of HR for Fortune 500 Medical Device Company: crafting of themes and speeches for National Sales Meetings since 2014.
- Egon Zehnder International, the Carnegie Corporation and IACPR; workshops on The Art of Storytelling.

Diane has conducted introductory programs on Leadership and Communication ranging from 90 minutes to half-days in length for organizations such as Financial Women’s Association, S&P Capital IQ, Citigroup, TIAA-CREF, and IACPR. Diane earned a BFA in theater from Boston University and is the author of several produced plays, musicals, and video scripts. She enjoys using video playback in TAI’s Video Studio to help people prep for important media interviews.